Today we continue a three-week sermon series on the book of Job. The character of Job is often held up as a model of suffering. "Oh, to have the patience of Job!" we think. But was Job really as patient as we seem to remember? What does Job's life, suffering, and response have to do with our lives? This month, we will spend three Sundays walking through the story of Job – a man who suffered, struggled, and (spoiler alert!) found God in the midst of it all.
