

Lane Riley Preaching at FBCP Jan 15

On Sunday, January 15, Pastor Jennifer Rygg will be in Georgia in order to attend a reception in honor of her father, Ron McClung, who is retiring after 30 years as pastor of Haddock Baptist Church. In her place, Lane Riley will be preaching at FBCP. Lane is the Associate Coordinator for CBFSC. She has undergraduate degrees from Lander University in Sociology and Spanish, and a Masters in Community Development from Delta State University. She is currently enrolled at Central Baptist Theological Seminary.

Lane previously served as the Executive Director of Delta Hands for Hope, a CBF-partnered Together for Hope site in the Mississippi Delta. She is passionate about advocating for social justice issues, and racial and gender equity. She was honored as one of the CBF "25 Young Baptists to Know" in 2017. Lane enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with family and friends. Welcome, Lane!

Church Office Closed Jan 16

The church office will be closed on Monday, Jan 16 in observance of the MLK holiday.

"Call My Name, Clemson: The Play"

"Call My Name, Clemson: The Play" will be performed at the Brooks Center Jan 28-29. This performance tells the stories of generations of African Americans, both freed and enslaved, who contributed to the history of Clemson University.

If you would be interested in attending the Sunday 7:30 pm performance with a group from the church, please let Jennifer Rygg know (call or text 864-760-7135, or email jennifer@fbcpendleton.org). There is also a Saturday performance. Tickets are $15-19; see the Brooks Center website for more information or to purchase tickets online.

Save the Date · QCC · Jan 29

Save the date for our next Quarterly Church Conference on Sunday, Jan 29 following worship. We will enjoy a meal and fellowship together in the Fellowship Hall and then hold a church business meeting.

Collins Children's Home Meat Offering

Wayne and Cheryl Patterson delivered $3,075.65 worth of meat to the Collins Children's Home on Dec 15. The total for the meat offering was $700 more than last year!! The man pictured helping unload is "BK," who is 55 years old and has lived at the home for 44 years. When he became an adult he stayed as a staff member. He often works at their Thrift Store.
