

Welcome Back, Visiting Pastor Dan Vincent

The Rev. Dr. Dan Vincent will be Visiting Pastor this summer while Pastor Jennifer Rygg is on renewal leave. Pastor Dan served as Interim Pastor at FBCP in 2016-2017. Dan has extensive experience as a Pastor, fostering a spirit of growth of ministry, infrastructure, and ecumenical connections. He has led several congregations through a process of discernment and visioning as they made pastoral transitions and sought a renewed direction for their mission.

Dan is a widower (Margaret passed away two years ago). He has three adult children and seven grandchildren -- four grandsons and three granddaughters -- who are the focus of much of his attention!

Dan is looking forward to renewing friendships with members who were here when he was Interim Pastor, as well as meeting everyone who has joined the church since. He is also eager to share his Biblical knowledge and has already planned a Wednesday Night Bible Study.

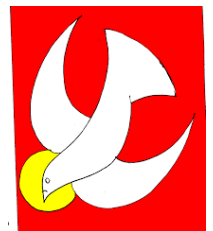

Dan's first Sunday will be June 11, and his first Bible Study will be June 14. Welcome back, Dan!

Pastor Jennifer on Renewal Leave June 5 - August 13

Pastor Jennifer Rygg will be on Renewal Leave June 5 - August 13. Visiting Pastor Dan Vincent will preach and lead Wednesday night Bible studies during the summer (with the exception of June 7, which will be led by deacons.) Pastor Dan will also be available for other pastoral needs. Rev. Chris Cottingham, Minister of Music and Youth, as well as our deacons, will also be available for congregational needs this summer, which will allow Pastor Jennifer the gift of an extended time of rest and renewal, in accordance with our personnel policies.
