

Just Like Me VBS

We had 20 kids and youth join us in the garden for Just Like Me VBS. The inclusivity-focused VBS taught kids key phrases like, "I wonder," "I have something to shout about," "I have something to share," and "I need my people," and everyone had a blast dancing, singing, crafting, and learning. Thanks to everyone who helped us dig in and grow deep! -- Kiley Daniel

The Gardening Continues...

After a full weekend of Just Like Me VBS, there is more to come! We couldn't fit all of the VBS activities into one weekend, so VBS activities for children will continue on Wednesday night!

VBS is for Adults too! Our Wednesday Night Bible Study this summer will use Just Like Me adult lessons.

Special Guest for Sunday School on June 9

Gator Lone Wolf, a Cherokee spiritual leader, ordained Baptist minister, and personal friend of several FBCP members, has been a long-time faithful advocate for LGBTQ inclusion. Gator and his husband, Dominique, were two of the plaintiffs in the SCOTUS 2015 Marriage Equality Case.

On Sunday, Jun 9, during the Sunday School hour, Gator will be sharing their story of the fight for marriage equality, including how personal faith motivated their protest and sustained them through the struggle. Join us for a meaningful conversation about equality and inclusion for all people.

No Supper or Activities on Juneteenth

The church office will be closed on June 19 in observance of Juneteenth. There will be no Wednesday Night Supper or activities that day, as staff members will be attending CBF General Assembly in Greensboro, NC.

Senior Adult Ministry

Jane Huss, Lead Volunteer

"Jesus is the rock of our salvation" was the theme of our recent Senior Adult Ministry meeting. We shared Bible verses about Jesus being our hope. He is our solid rock and we can always trust Him. Sweet conversation and fellowship was enjoyed as each member painted a rock as a reminder of our time together. Following the rock painting activity we enjoyed a lively game of BINGO!

We were glad to have Thomas and Caleb Rygg visit with us and help serve our delicious picnic lunch.

Hands On Missions Completes Another Ramp

For being the best rampologists anywhere I want to say thanks. For being the most faithful and willing servants I say thank you so much. Our Hands On Missions efforts are dependent on willing volunteers. We've set a record in finishing a long ramp by 2:00 pm on day one and I'd say the homeowners were well pleased. -- Wayne Patterson
